

Special Highlights on RV Brown Visit to Liberia, West Africa

Overview

The Old Testament account of Ecclesiastes 3:1 says, “To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under the heaven.” This verse characterized the visit of the Evangelist RV Brown. His visit did not take the air way through the media publicizing his arrival and activities but it was the seasoning and the timing for RV Brown to be a blessing to the people of his nativity - Liberia.

The Impact

The Evangelist RV Brown passion for the souls of people to be saved and grow in relationship with Jesus Christ cannot be overemphasizing. His simplicity of presenting the truth of God’s Word to his audience out of deeper personal conviction, and the love of God was expressly seen throughout his administration. The heart of his message was salvation to sinners, rededication to back sliders, restoration of families and the challenge for parents to take their rightful places; that Dad be the Dad to the kids. The questions often highlighted during his administration were:

- “Are parents teaching and praying for their kids?”
- “Do you have a relationship with Jesus Christ?”
- “Where will you be when Jesus Christ comes again?”

Impact Stories

The stories here reflect the conviction of the individuals as they responded to the administration or the messages of the Evangelist RV Brown. The stories are drawn from personal interaction with individuals who attended the meetings. Some came up to engage us to express their thoughts and appreciation, and the other through counseling exercises. Below are some of the thoughts and expressions from individuals:

“I thank God that I have clearly understood how my name can be written in the Book of Life. I will encourage and pray for my children to have their names written in the Book of Life too,” by Mother Korpo Zabeh, Lutheran Church.

“Thank God that I am a child of God, and that Jesus Christ died for my sin,” by a youth D. Smith, Worldwide Reaping Church.

“For the first time I have never be so much at peace after hearing the Evangelist RV Brown speak to us. I really feel loved by God and thank God for RV Brown” by a Driver with Samaritan’s Purse Liberia, Pewee.

Reflections

As we reflect on the visit of the Evangelist RV Brown, we can conclude that his visit was truly a blessing to us and his return will be more of a boost to the Franklin Graham All Liberia Life Festival planning and implementation. In fact, up until the day of his departure we were still receiving requests for his engagement to minister to schools and Churches. Truly this is what Lord has done!

As members of the Festival Core Team, we certainly believe that it will be expedient for the Evangelist RV Brown to return ahead of the main Festival.

To God be the glory for great things He has done!
